Nursery School Schedule Told

The Gardena Co-op Nursery School, Compton and Crenshaw, announces openings for the summer term, June 23 to August 15, Monday and Thursday from 9 to 1:30 p.m. Children from 2½ to 5 years are eligible.

A non-sectarian, interracial school, it is run cooperatively by mothers and an experienced professional staff. Under the supervision of teacher-director Rosalie Greene and senior teacher Manya Green, the pre-schoolers participate in activities ranging from woodwork, painting, block building, stories and songs to the outside play around the jungle gym, swings and sand box.

Dinner Speech

More than 75 well-wishers will dine at Ingewood's Chalon restaurant June 4, when business speech students enrolled in the course by Dr. Jack H. Martin at El Camino College provide after-dinner speeches as a part of the final examination.

The evening will be utilized by students in business psychology classes as a workshop and will mark the 16th such semi-annual occasion sponsored by the business instructor.

Among the guests present will be President and Mrs. Forrest G. Murock of El Camino College, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Di Carlo and Dr. and Mrs. Martin.

Club Plans June Flower Show Tea

Mrs. George Norton conducted her first meeting as president of Greenthumbers Garden Club at the May meeting held in the home of Mrs. John Knight.

Tentative plans for a flower show and tea to be held in late July, details to be announced later.

Placing of a club entry in the recent Flower, Art and Hobby show was announced as well as one from the Junior Greenthumb Club.

A pot luck dinner in the home of Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer the first week in June will take place of the previously announced membership tea. Mrs. Richard Maben will demonstrate floral arrangements.

President Horton and several club members attended the district meeting of the California Garden Clubs Inc. in Long Beach May 22. They also attended the silver tea given by Riviera Club May 25.

Mrs. Clarence Barrow was presented with potted plants and an honorary membership to the club. She will move to Anaheim next month.

Those present were Mmes. Vincent Patten, George Harton, Clarence Barrow, Leslie Sellmeyer, Earl Hubasek, William Greenwood, William Fitzgerald, Dick Wilhelm, Al Matigoren, John Knight, John Klug, Paul Kelleck, Eldon Sellmeyer, Harry Allen, J. Fitzgerald and Maude Vulgamett.

Guild to Present, 'Tropical Treats'

The American Legion Hall, 1109 Border ave., will be transformed into a tropical isle setting June 4 when St. Philomena Church St. Frances Guild presents their first fashion show "Tropical Treats" at 8 p.m. Mrs. Wilma Hastings of the finishing and fashion modeling school bearing her name, will commentate and furnish models.

Mrs. Andre Martin as chairman has appointed Mmes. R. P. Bowman, H. DeLeon, C. Garcia, M. Machado, A. Bradley and D. Paxton on the refreshment committee and Mmes. R. Nieves, E. Williams, L. Turcotte and F. Kyle on the decorating committee. Mrs. W. Eilers is ways and means chairman and Mrs. R. Turner, publicity chairman. The program will include door prizes, several gifts for each person attending, and refreshments. Door prizes have been donated by Torrance and Wilmington merchants. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Accordion Festival Dates Scheduled

Over 3500 contestants will vie for prizes and citations at the third annual Western States Accordion Festival, to be held in Long Beach August 9 and 10. Soloists, combos and bands from all the area are invited by the sponsoring Accordion Association of Southern California and entry blanks are available from its members, including the Ferraro Accordion Studio and Trella Music Enterprises in Torrance.

Visit Gardens

Torrance Woman's Club garden section attended the California Garden Club district meeting recently in Banning Park. They enjoyed a potluck luncheon and toured Gen. Thineas Banning's residence.

Present were Mrs. Peter Boonstra, chairman; Mrs. John Warnock, vice chairman, and Mrs. John Thuss.

Next district meeting will be held June 6 in the Eippert Gardens in Lomita.

Plan Kansas Picnic

Former residents of Iola, Kan., will have a picnic in Covina Park on the San Bernardino rd., June 8 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Families are asked to bring their own lunch. R. W. East, La Puente, is secretary of the group.
